MEMO ENDORSED

Re: United States v. Nicholas Tartaglione, S3 16 Cr. 832 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas:

The Government writes, with the consent of defense counsel, to request an adjournment of the conference scheduled in this case for tomorrow, November 28, 2018. Last week, the Government made an additional discovery production in response to a specific discovery request by the defense. Upon review of that production and discussion with the Government, defense counsel indicated that tomorrow's conference would no longer be necessary and further asked that the Government submit a request for adjournment. In particular, defense counsel has requested a new conference date on January 3, 2019 or January 4, 2019. If those dates are not available, defense counsel has requested that the conference be scheduled for a date in mid-January that is convenient to the Court. Defense counsel further consents to, and the Government hereby requests, the exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act through the new conference date set by the court in the interests of justice so that the defense may continue to review the most recent discovery production and to allow for the continuation of the capital review process at the Department of Justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(7)(A).

The 11/28/18 conference is adjourned to 1/3/19, at 12:00. Trial is excluded until then, in the interests of justice. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A).

So ordered
